FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Professional Association of Small Business Accountants Holds 14th

Annual Awards Ceremony and Honors Six Members

Virtual, November 12, 2020 -- The Professional Association of Small Business Accountants held its 14th annual awards ceremony at the 2020 Fall Management Conference this week. Six well-deserving members were honored with awards during the conference awards ceremony, held virtually. The winners were chosen in four award categories, including PASBA Accounting Firm of the Year.

Bob Shaner was chosen as the 2020 medium practice recipient of the Association's Accounting Firm of the Year for his firm, Integra Business Solutions. Mr. Shaner was nominated by the members of the association to receive this outstanding award that honors a member who has consistently demonstrated the beliefs of the association's motto, Teach~Share~Learn. Mr. Shaner has been a member of the Professional Association of Small Business Accountants for many years and has served on the several committees and is active in a Financial Review Group.

The Professional Association of Small Business Accountants represents Certified Public Accountants, Public Accountants, and Enrolled Agents who provide accounting services to small businesses throughout the United States. Members of the Association have built a nationwide network of accountants to benefit small business clients across the country. Using the collective resources of this network, Association members offer their clients a level of service and expertise that individual practices are unable to rival.
